

Network Security - Images from (google.com)

Threat

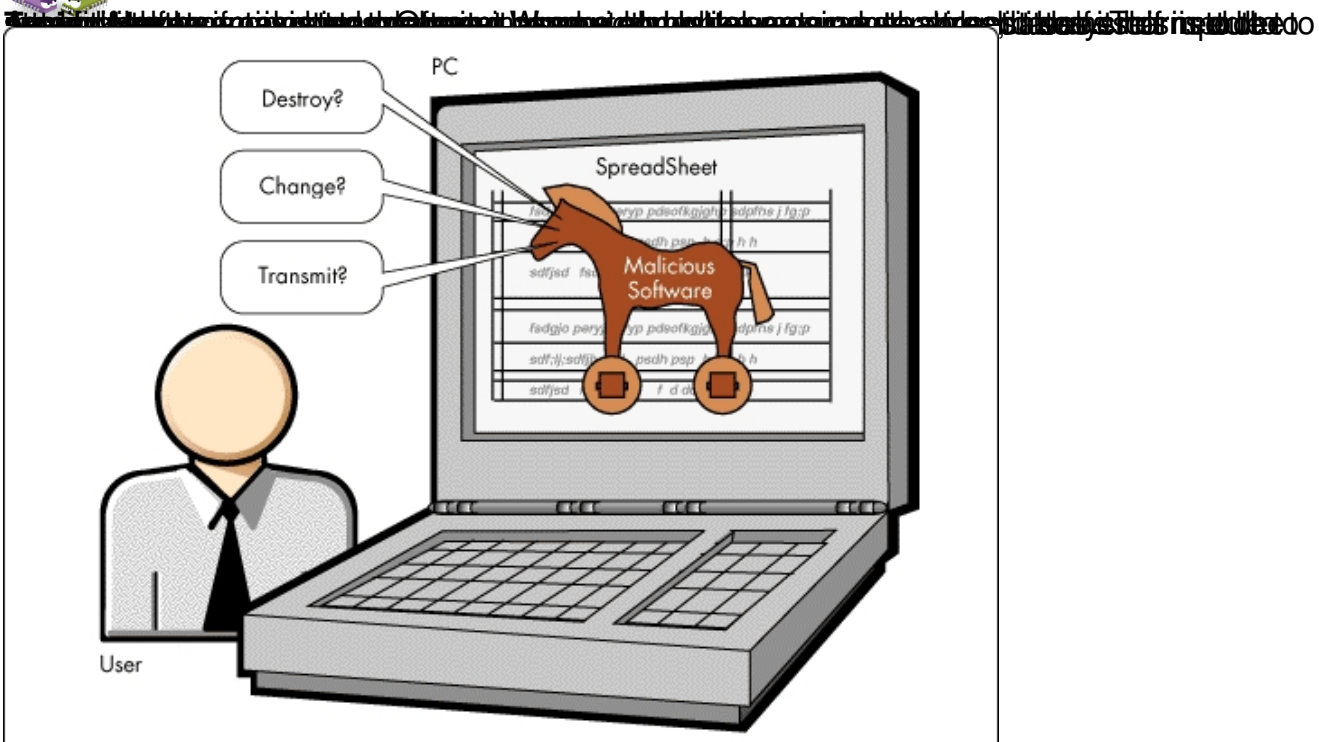

A computer threat MIGHT include a Trojan, virus, spyware, back-doors etc. each has its own meaning.

Virus

malicious computer program that can copy itself and infect a computer without the copying itself and infecting other computers. It can also perform other actions such as deleting files, changing settings, and sending spam emails.

Network Security Concept

Network Security Concept

Without a firewall

With a firewall

